

Possibly our best project ever. Build yourself a computer controlled, ie computer tuned, Automatic Antenna Tuning Unit! Simple to make with a professional finish and serious performance!

PAGE 10

PAGE 38

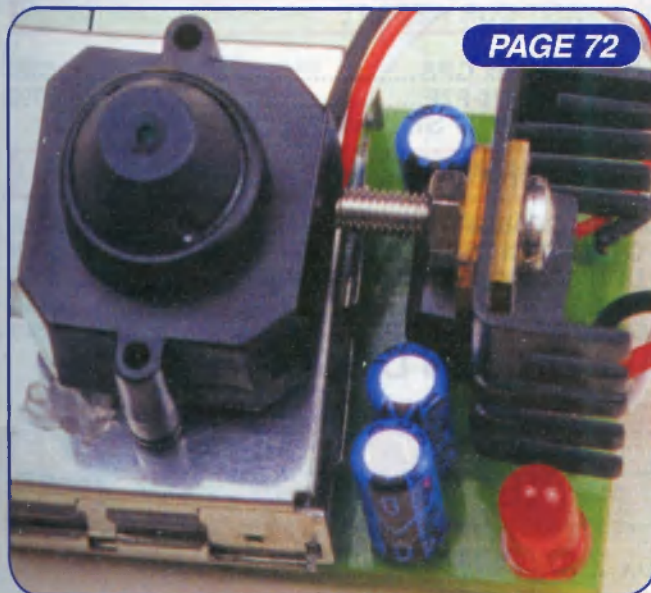

We borrow a dream!
Trent Sampson VK4TI test drives the Icom IC-7400

PAGE 46

Uniden compact marvel, UHF CB Radio with built in scanner —the UH-013.

Peek-a-boo, Oatley kit provides tiny remote surveillance camera

PAGE 72

- 3 Editorial - Bob thanks you for your fantastic response to our first issue back.
- 4 Radio and Communications News opens with a pictorial look at IOTA/IOTI weekend.
- 10 Automatic Antenna Tuning Unit - A practical, professional, state of the art, Antenna Tuner.
- 14 Moffat's Madhouse - Tom explores the changes in Technology and laments the loss of once common services.
- 16 Did Bell invent the telephone? Ron Bertrand reports on US doubts.
- 17 VK3YZRs Impossible Contact with space shuttles STS 58 and STS 65
- 18 ICOM IC7400 Review - Trent Samson gets to spend quality time with the new Icom radio.
- 22 Digital Audio Broadcasting - an overview of proposed technology by Bob Padula
- 25 Microwave DXpedition 2002 - Russell Lemke VK3ZQB and friends chase records in VK4
- 28 Modifications Greg Towells reports on mods to AR3000 and Yaesu FT-817
- 31 More handy Workshop hints this time from Dan Bartlett VK4TDB
- 32 Remembering Radio by Thomas E. King VK2ATJ - the ABC celebrations in Centennial Park Sydney
- 34 An Introduction to Electroplating using common chemicals and a simple current regulator.
- 36 Technically Speaking #8 - Ron Bertrand is back with more insight into the world of radiation.
- 41 Uniden UHF CB radio - The perfect addition to any long distance driver's dash board!
- 46 John Batty looks at a freely available Slow Scan TV program that works off a Computer Sound Card
- 49 Another Quickie Antenna design for the experimenter uses one piece of wire and a terminated coax lead.
- 50 CQ Contest column by Ian Godsil. The summer contest season is nearly upon us - How will you fair?
- 52 Broadcast Monitor - Bob Padula presents Broadcast News and DX report for Wireless Listeners
- 57 27MHz DX Jack Haden returns to report on International DX conditions for the avid CBER. See we did listen to you!
- 60 Feedback from you the readers. Here is an opportunity to share your comments with others.
- 62 We welcome Tom Sundstrum back after a long break to tell us what's happening on the internet.
- 64 Vintage Radio - Roger Johnson makes a return to Radio and Communications Pages.
- 68 John Batty reviews the Ultra Shortwave Handbook - a nostalgic look at UHF Oscillator Technology in valve times.
- 71 The Kortz Repeater Identifier/Controller comes on a tiny PCB and features flexibility!
- 72 Oatley Electronics presents the 2.4GHz TV Transmitter and Receiver Modules. (while Bob makes plans to launch it)
- 75 The Radio and Communications Crossword Puzzle to get you thinking between scheds!
- 76 Ionospheric Prediction Services present the propagation charts for November
- 78 Radio and Communications Reader's Classifieds are open to all readers not just subscribers.
- 80 Last Word. John Kolm's look at the status of in-flight technology