

The tributes are still coming in for a Radio Old Timer - Astronomy legend - pioneer of Radio Astronomy & the accepted inventor of the Parabolic Dish.

PAGE 14

PAGE 18

Now That's a Cable!

PAGE 58

- 3 Editorial - Have you lined yourself up for a great training weekend by participation in the John Moyle?
- 4 Radio and Communications News - Bushfire Season touches Amateur Radio as does Space Flight Risks
- 9 DX-Diary Jack Haden fills the gap for those who have been asking for more on AR DX
- 12 Here's an email with distinction - Read this one and ask whether your club is doing it's best on memberships.
- 14 Moffat's Madhouse - Tom farewells an old mate, and tells us about a true Aussie by choice!
- 17 Here's some ideas for your club to consider. Graham Kemp VK4BB (Baker Baker) from QNews has the Clues!
- 18 Where's Thomas King been? He's been to mysterious China where to look at their Electronics Industry.
- 24 Tom Sundstrom's back with some news from the USA and Apple Computer's challenge to old technology.
- 26 News from the Far North of Queensland, Torres Islands await those who dare!
- 29 An Alternative solution to the Camp Generator. Let Bosch light up your campsite!
- 33 There's no noise like bad noise! We review the Noise Eliminating Speakers from BHI of England.
- 36 Technically Speaking #10 - Ron Bertrand straightens out the GR5V
- 40 Here's a present we meant to give you for Christmas, but were you naughty or...!
- 42 Load the Tri-bander Beam on 40m -eh, no, not the elements but the boom!
- 45 The Worldwide Radio and Television Handbook gets a three page going over by an approving Bob Padula
- 49 How good are your favourite connectors? The classic UHF connector gets a physical.
- 52 Jack Haden covers the world again on 27MHx DX. Whos working who and when?
- 55 As a backup, Jack Haden returns to report on International DX conditions for the 6m band.
- 58 Belden Low Loss Coaxial Cables compared and reviewed. We test four cable types against their specifications.
- 64 Feedback - Readers feedback and suggestions... Sometimes you eat the bear - sometimes the bear eat you!
- 66 Broadcast Monitor - Bob Padula reports on the Broadcast world -will Germany lose OS programs?
- 71 A Quad Folded Dipole - How does this low real-estate solution compare to the dipole?
- 75 The Radio and Communications Crossword Puzzle gets bigger and perhaps harder! How did the last one go?
- 76 Ionospheric Prediction Services present the propagation charts for November.
- 78 Radio and Communications Reader's Classifieds are open to all readers not just subscribers.
- 80 The Tale End - A tongue in cheek look at Wheels and Computers. CPAs should not read this!