

In this Issue

- 15 ELECTRONICS OF DISNEYLAND — Tom King VK2ATJ takes a trip into Tomorrow-land.
- 19 BUILD A SIX METRE HALO — The mobile antenna with horizontal polarization and omni-directional radiation.
- 23 PATRON SAINT OF HAM RADIO — Raymond Kolbe SP3RN . . . Saint Maximilian!
- 24 ANTENNA NOTES — A quick look at some new antenna ideas that might solve your problems.
- 27 HAM RADIO CROSSWORD — Something to pass the time while the bands are dead.
- 29 TRIAL BY RADIO — A horse rally co-ordinated by radio amateurs.
- 34 BEAM HEADINGS — NEW IDEAS — Greg Baker with a different approach to calculating your own beam directions.
- 38 KENWOOD TW-4000A REVIEW — A 2 meter and 70 cm FM rig with real style.
- 42 NEW POWER METER RANGE — A look at Kenwood's new meters . . . from 50W to 2000W!

Regular Features

- 4 TRAFFIC — Editorial opinions by Tony Gilbert VK3CE
- 7 YL FORUM — DXing from a YL angle.
- 10 NEWSDESK — News, views and product information.
- 49 DX NOTES — News and comment on the world of DX.
- 55 VHF/UHF SCATTER — The latest news on events above 50 MHz
- 57 WORK THE WORLD — Some individual Australian awards.
- 61 CONTEST CALENDAR — Rules, results and comment on contesting.
- 64 SHORTWAVE LISTENING — All the news for the SWL.
- 66 PREDICTIONS — July propagation figures from the IPS.
- 68 CLUB DIRECTORY — The only complete guide to local clubs.
- 72 CLASSIFIEDS — Australia's biggest permanent 'hamfest'

COVER — The Gippsland Gate Radio Club's Field repeater.
INSET — Kenwood's TW-4000A on the test bench.