

8 MORSE CODE — ACA & READER FEEDBACK

Should Australia follow the lead of the UK and USA and reduce Morse Code test speeds to 5WPM for all grades of amateur licence? The ACA leads a number of reader letters...

11 / WIN A KENWOOD I I I UHF CB RADIO

M We have two superb Kenwood M UHF transceivers to give away
M^ — all you have to do is give the / m S ^ babe a name!

W B BASIC ELECTRICITY

* Ron Bertrand's excellent series continues, this month looking once more at Capacitance. And you simply will not believe the last bit!

18 TOUR OF DILI

As the dust slowly settles around East Timor and the refugees slowly trickle home, Australian TV news cameraman Scott Richardson, VK2XYI, reports on how life is slowly returning to normal there. Of course, he'd packed a radio or three and an Opto Scout. What did he hear? Check this out!

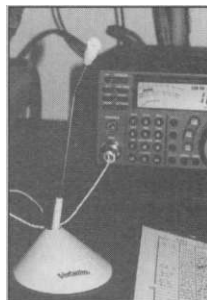

26 AWARDS FOR AMATEURS

There are many operating awards around for amateurs to collect. Countries, states and more. Jack Haden looks at some of them...

See you at Wyonfi!

24 BUILD A DESK MIC

Here's a great idea! You can make a very professional-sounding desk mic for just a few bucks. VK6APH and VK6CTL teamed up for this great do-it-yourself project...

38 REVIEW: ICOM IC-756PRO

PRO by name, PRO by nature! Neil Duncan, VK3ND, reviews the latest feature-laden weapon from Icom. It may look like the old one, but it sure doesn't work that way! Colour too...

57 REVIEW: KENWOOD UBZ-LF48Y UHF CB

Wow! What a find... you get voice encryption, fantastic audio, a very innovative design and all 40ch for under $200! Check this out!

News Desk, Last Word and Military Stan are on holiday this month...

What's in our Amazing April issue? Find out March 22,2000...