

IT'S ALL IN THIS ISSUE

REVIEW: FT-8000R

Here's yet another new Yaesu for you to consider. This time, a dual-band FM mobile rig with a scanner-like receive frequency range. Chris, VK3CE, reports...

AVALON AIR SHOW — SCANNER HEAVEN

The 1997 Airshow Downunder promises to be a true gala event, and all the more so if you bring your scanners along. Bob Bell describes the action, and tells you where to listen out...

REVIEW: DIAMOND'S WELZ WS1000E

Hey! Here's the ticket for Avalon! This baby new scanner looks like a toy, but its performance makes it a real screamer. Two AA batteries are all you need for hours of fun. A breathless Russell Bryant has the story...

REVIEW: TIMEWAVE DSP-599zx DSP FILTER

Can't afford a brand new DSP HF transceiver, or you want that sort of technology for your receiver? Don't have to have loads of money, you know. Tom Sundstrom has put the latest DSP unit through its paces...

28

THE DSE POWERHOUSE

R&C checks out the latest thing in radio marketing — an electronics warehouse! A VK3CE report...

32

HOLES AND ELECTRONS

Here's this month's serve of theory. Geoff Arnold explains how you move holes, the difference between n-type and p-type, and more...

39

CONSTRUCTION: BUILD AN AUDIO AGC UNIT

Basic receivers will benefit from this simple AGC and audio processor construction project designed by Raymond Haigh.

BEHIND THE SCENES...

Michael Evans joined the roadies with the recent John Farnham tour.

52

HEAT - HELP OR CURSE?

Heat can be handy in electronics. Then again, it can be a hindrance...

59

WIN A UBC9000XLT!

Here's another great way to win... And you don't have to cut the mag!

88

SSTV EXPLAINED #3

We conclude Jim Smith's series...

75

AROUND THE GLOBE...

HF is far from dead on the high seas! Globe Wireless is the new force in maritime HF... complete with CW!

88

WHAT'S THE CHANCE?

Oh, about so and so per cent... But how do you really work it out?

1997 AMATEUR DXCC

Confused about which country's which? Here's the latest listing, compiled by Jim Smith, VK9NS.